BRYAN ON LABOR UNIONS.

Says Unions Have Made Mistakes But Have Accomplished Good.

Chicago, March 19.—William Jenning Bryan, at the closing conference Sunday, in connection with the industrial exhibit, expressed the opinion, that trade unions have done more good for society than any other force in this country.

Although he disclaimed any "scientific" knowledge of the question, Mr. Bryan's remarks were received with much satisfaction by the audience of union men from the Federation of Labor, which attended the meeting.

The unions have made some mistakes, but they have accomplished more good, was the keynote of his speech. He paid a tributue especially to the organization of women in this connection.

"When we consider that through trade unions wages have been increased, hours shortened and comfort afforded the workingmen in greater measure," he said, "I think we have a right to say the benefit resulting from these unions cannot be overestimated. Perhaps no other force in the country ever has been so effective for improvement in the citizenship and general moral qualities of our people.

"The Australian ballot system, for one thing, is largely due in this country to the agitation of the trades union. I almost feel safe in saying had it not been for the interest taken in this reform by these organizations we might still be employing the old system of voting.

"If the labor union had never done anything else than raise the age limit of employment, for children, in the mines and factories of this nation, this achievement alone would justify its existence. No influence in this country ever has been so evil in its effects as the tendency to crowd our workshops with children of tender years. It is a most destructive tendency and one that the public conscience should protest against. Referring to women in industry, Mr. Bryan said he believed women might accomplish as much as men through organizations into unions."

President of Chinese Association.

New York, March 19.—Kang Yu Wie, president of the Chinese reform association, arrived here Sunday with his secretary on the liner Amerika. He was entertained Sunday night by his fellow countrymen at a dinner in Mott street. The affair was also by way of honoring his birthday. He received many telegrams of congratulations. Kang Yu Wie, was one of the most progressive Chinamen in the world. It is said that the empress Dowager, of China has set a price on his head. Through an interpreter he said Sunday that the association has 3,000,000 members in China, and 3,000,000 in other parts of the world. The aim of the association, he said, is to bring about economic reforms peacefully.

Horrifying Drowning Acident.

Valladado, Spain, March 19.—An unsual and horrifying drowning accident occurred here Sunday. Pedro Marcos, a lawyer, his two children, their nurse and a young lady were drowned by their carriage and horse falling from a bridge into a canal. Senora Marcos, who was with the party, was the only one that was rescued.

Argentine Loan of $35,000,000.

Buenos Ayres, March 19.—French and German bankers have authorized Ernesto Tornquist, an Argentine banker, to sign an Argentine loan of $35,000,000. It is expected, however, that the issue will be postponed because of the unpromising conditions of the money market.

$100,000 FIRE AT SMITHFIELD, ALABAMA

Portion of Blocton, Ala., Destroyed by Flames.

BUSINESS SECTION IS IN RUINS

In Addition to the Business Houses Burned, Twelve Residence Were Consumed by the Flames—Not a Single Business House Left.

Birmingham, Ala., March 19.—The entire business section of Smithfield, a part of Blocton, Ala., was destroyed by fire Sunday night, entailing a loss now estimated at $100,000. In addition to the business houses burned, 12 residences were consumed by the flames.

The fire started about 7:30 o'clock at night in a negro restaurant, and it spread rapidly. Included in the list of burned buildings was the city dispensary, a number of general merchandise stores, several of which were very handsome buildings, two meat markets and two restaurants.

Blocton is a widely scattered town, and Smithfield is the eastern portion, lying about three-quarters of a mile from the depot. It was practically a town within itself, although really a part of the town of Blocton. There is not a single business house left standing.

ATLANTA TABERNACLE ASSURED

Over $90,000 Has So Far Been Subscribed for the Purpose.

Atlanta, March 19.—The movement to erect a great Atlanta Tabernacle received a magnificent indorsement at the hands of Atlanta citizens Sunday morning, when members of Dr. Len G. Broughton's church subscribed the sum of $68,000 for this purpose—whole donations already received from people outside the church and outside the city will push the total between $90,000 and $100,000, one of the most remarkable achievements in the religious history in the city or in the south.

Dr. Broughton did not expect to get more than $50,000 on the day of the opening of subscriptions, and would have been heartily satisfied with that The money subscribed assures the erection of the Atlanta Tabernacle, as there are public-spirited citizens of Atlanta and other places, as well as good wishers and admirers of Dr. Broughton, who are only waiting to be called on to make contributions.

Peasant Disorders Commences.

St Petersburg, March 19.—With the opening of parliament March 5, peasant disorders commenced in several provinces and apparently the result of organized agitation. In addition to an outbreak in Vladivostok, where 500 drunken peasants were wrecked the government spirit stores before they were dispersed by volleys fired by the police resulting in eight peasants being killed. Fatal affrays between peasants and police occurred in Saratov and Kiev provinces where attempts to take possession by violence of private estates were renewed. Premier Stolypin has sent a circular to the governors enjoining them to arrest all agitators, even members of parliament.

Terrible Massacre Reported

New York, March 19.—A cable dispatch received by the Jewish Morning Journal of this city reporting that terrible massacres have occurred at Podihilo, Roumania, has caused consternation among the Roumanian Jews in New York. They fear another Kishineff affair, in which so many Russian Jews perished. Podihilo, strangely enough, is only about 30 miles from Kishineff, which is in Bessarabia, across the Russian frontier.

Will Be Guests of Carnegie.

New York, March 19.—William R. Cremer, M. P., founder of the interparliamentary union in Great Britain, and Lord Weardale, the president of that Union, will be the guest of Andrew Carnegie at the first national arbitration peace congress of America, to be held in Carnegie hall, from April 14 to April 17.

CITY IS JARRED BY DYNAMITE.

Two Hundred and Fifty Pounds of Explosive Lets Loose in Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O., March 19.—By the explosion of 250 pounds of dynamite in a shack on the site of the new city hospital, enormous damage was done to residence and buildings all through the surrounding section.

People all over the city and suburbs were awakened and excited and it was feared for a time that patients in the Jewish hospital might suffer serious results from the shock.

All glass within a radius of half a mile were broken, neighboring store fronts were blown out, furnaces dismantled by the shock, sewers disconnected and other damage done.

The German Old Men's Home and the Jewish hospital were the largest buildings near the explosion, which occurred in Avondale, one of the best known residence sections and both suffered seriously.

The cause of the explosion is unknown, but incendiaryism is feared, a number of men recently discharged by the hospital contractors being said to have made threats.

Aristocrats Stirred by Bethrotal.

Vienna, March 19.—A sensational bethrothal has caused a stir among the aristocracy here and at Budapest. It is that of Countess Ilma, daughter of Count Paul Festelics, to Rudi Nayari, first violinist of the Oldeburg Tsigane band. The countess is 24 years old. She first saw Nayari at a band concert. She was then engaged to Count Sigismuns Sprezzie, but she fell in love at first sight with the young violinist, who reciprocated her affection. When she returned to her mother, who was living in Oldenburg, she broke off her engagement with Count Sigismund, and was bethrothed to Nayari at his own home, all the gypsies of Oldenburg being present.

May Have Been Due to Criminal Act.

Toulon, March 19.—The explosion which destroyed the battleship Iena, it is now believed, may possibly have been due to a criminal act. A sailor has been arrested for having spoken in gratification at the disaster, and the commander of another warship has received a letter threatening a similar catastrophe to his vessel. Naval officers are demanding that saillival officers by the anti-milist propaganda be promptly given shore duty. A launch in which President Fallieres, visited the fleet during the past week, sank in the harbor on Sunday. A defective keel beam was the cause.

Clearing Up of the Flood Section.

Pittsburg, March 19.—Health officials Monday began the task of cleaning up the flood section in an effort to avert an epidemic of sickness which is threatening the city. Compulsory measures were resorted to in order to compel haste and thoroughness in the cleaning up of the filth and debris washed into the city from up-river points. The health bureau has issued additional warnings urging the people of Pittsburg to boil all the water before using as a preventative of typhoid fever.

Taft Is Going to Panama.

Washington, March 19.—Secretary Taft, accompanied by Senator Kittridge and Representatives Burton and DeArmond and three civil engineers, is to sail for the Panama canal zone on March 24, on the cruiser Columbia. It is expected that the test holes on the site of the Gatum dam will have been excavated sufficiently by the time the party reaches the isthmus to make possible an examination of the foundation of the largest dam to be constructed on the canal.

Montevideo, March 19.—The new Uruguayan cabinet is announced as follows: Alvaro Guerrillot, minister of the interior; Jacobo Varela, foreign affairs; Gabriel Tierra, public instruction, labor and industry; General Eduardo Vasques, war; Senor Lamelee, public works.

FORECAST HIS DEATH TO WIFE AND SON

Declared It Would Be Due to Railroad Accident.

ALCOHOL POISON WAS VERDICT

Although Man Said His Death Would Be Due to Railroad Accident, the Verdict of the Coroner's Jury Decides Death Was Due to Alcohol.

Atlanta, March 19.—Death from alcoholic poisoning came to James F. Norwood, 54 years old, Sunday morning in a room at 167½ Decatur street.

Norwood forecast his death to his son, Garnett Norwood, on Saturday, and to his wife a week previously. He told them that death would result from the effects of an injury received in a railroad accident, and even went so far as to write out a detailed statement of his injury, and name witnesses who could be produced, should his wife wish to enter suit against the railroad.

A coroner's jury, however, reached the decision that Garnett's death was due to alcohol and not to the railroad.

Garnett Norwood told the jury that Sunday morning he felt a premonition of his father's condition, and going to his boarding house, found him dead. Young Norwood said, however, that his father had died from drink.

Mrs. Norwood, who lives at 58 George street, said that her husband called on her a week ago, and told her he would soon die. He said it was due to the railroad accident, and wrote out a statement of the case and urged her to bring suit.

Kills Self at New Kimball Hotel.

Atlanta, March 19.—A man registered at the New Kimball house as C. R. Morgan, of Norfolk, Va., committed suicide in a room on the third floor of that hotel Sunday afternoon by shooting himself through the head with a 38-caliber pistol.

Morgan was found in his room between 1 and 2 o'clock by Miss Emma Donohue, assistant housekeeper.

When he was discovered, the man's body attired in a suit of under clothing, was on the bed, with his head propped on two pillows. An ugly hole in the back of the head, from which the blood gushed freely, and a pistol clasped tightly in the right hand, told the tale of the suicide.

No cause is known as to deed.

Was Murdered on a Public Road.

Charlotte, N. C, March 19.—A young white man, 35 years old, was found dead with his skull crushed in on the public highway, 4 miles from Charlotte. A team hired from a local stable stood in the road near by. Shortly after the discovery of the crime the sheriff arrested J. T. E. Kimball, who lives within a short distance of the scene, and locked him up, charged with the murder. The murdered man, who is supposed to be one Stephenson, a molder, drove to Ft. Mill, S. C., to visit his mother and while returning is presumed to have been waylaid and murdered by Kimball. Stephenson's attention to Kimball's wife is ascribed as the motive for the crime. The murder was committed with the butt end of a shotgun.

Bush Named on Peace Commission.

Birmingham, Ala., March 19.—Col. T G Bush has just returned to Birmingham, having been notified while in Mobile, Ala., of his appointment as one of the two representatives of the people on the Nobel industrial peace commission. Colonel Bush states that the appointment came to him without the slightest knowledge on his part, and that he was not prepared to discuss it on that account.

Assassinated Three Women.

TAMPA PEOPLE INTERESTED.

Gainesville Looks Good to Them and They Are Enthusiastic.

Gainesville is certainly the banner town of Florida from a home-seeker's standpoint. "It's the most beautiful town I have seen in years," said Mr. Davis of the firm of Davis & Arnold, last week when here on business, and his words of praise are now echoed by Mr. Arnold of the same firm, who arrived here yesterday for the purpose of assisting in the sale of College Park, which from all indications is to be one of Gainesville's prettiest and most fashionable suburbs.

It is situated just across University avenue from the grounds of the University of Florida, and there's nothing to compare with it in the suburbs of any city in the State.

Mr. Arnold has made liberal contracts with the local papers and, as he is an advertising expert, it is safe to say that we will be treated during the next few weeks to many examples of the power of printer's ink.

A BUSINESS CHANGE.

LeRoy N. Pearce of Alachua Disposes of His Interests to Bishop & Bishop.

LeRoy N. Pearce, for many years one of the leading merchants of Alachua, has disposed of his stock of general merchandise in that town to Bishop & Bishop, who have assumed charge of the business.

The Pearce store and stock is one of the largest and most modern in that section of the county, and has always enjoyed fine business.

The Sun was unable to learn Mr. Pearce's future plans, but he will no doubt engage in business of some kind soon.

Diechmann Adjudged Insane.

William Diechmann, a young white man who has been about the city for the past three or four days acting strangely, was taken into custody by Marshal Pinkoson Tuesday, and a commission comprising Drs. DEATH OF MRS PROCTOR.

Expired at Hospital Monday Night as Result of Surgical Operation.

One of the saddest deaths to occur at the Old Fellows' Sanitarium for some time was that of Mrs. Delia Proctor, the beloved wife of R. D. Proctor, a well known merchant of Bronson, who expired Monday night from the result of a surgical operation.

Deceased was brought to Gainesville Monday morning in a very serious condition. The operation was performed, but at the time the surgeons had little confidence in her recovery.

Mrs. Proctor was about thirty years of age, and a native of Levy county. She was a member of the Methodist Church, and has always been an active worker in the cause of Christ. By her sweet, amiable disposition, she had endeared herself to a large number of friends, who loved her for good and charitable deeds She is survived by a husband, two sons, Clyde and Floyd, and two daughters, Gertrude and Marie, to whom the sympathy of The Sun and the community is extended.

The remains were shipped to Bronson, where the funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, Rev. R. M. Williams of the Methodist church of Bronson officiating.

Mr. Jernigan Improved.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jernigan are at home again, after a delightful sojourn at Hampton Springs, and a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Jandine, in Macon, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Jernigan went to the springs for the benefit of the former's health, and friends are congratulating him upon the wonderful improvement in every way. During the short stay there he gained nearly twenty pounds in flesh, of which he is naturally as proud as he is grateful.

Clears the Complexion.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and thoroughly cleanses the system and clears the complexion of pimples and blotches. It is the best laxative for women and children as it is mild and pleasant, and does not gripe or sicken. Orino is much superior to pills, aperient waters and all ordinary cathartics as it does not irritate the stomach and bowels. J. W. McCollum & Co.

DEATH AT ALACHUA.

Mrs. Jessie P. Howell of Alachua Passed Away Sunday.

Mrs. Jessie P. Howell of Alachua died Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at her home of tuberculosis, in the forty-sixth year of her age.

Deceased was born in Melrose, where she resided for a number of years. She was twice married, first in 1888 to J. Y. Smith. Mr. Smith died in 1892, when afterward deceased was married to Dr. E. B Howell, who survives her.

Deceased was a devoted member of the Baptist church of Alachua, and up to the time of her illness was an active worker. None in Alachua was more universally regarded, and her death will be greatly regretted by her large circle of friends and acquaintances. Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Furman Y. Smith and Edgar Howell, and one daughter, Miss Katie Smith. Also four brothers—J. R., Chas. and Thomas Williams of Alachua, and Hugh Williams of Waldo, and two sisters, Mrs. T. P. Maynard of Alachua and Mrs. McCranie of Tampa. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved relatives.

The funeral was held at 11 o'clock Monday morning, Rev. T. W. Mo[illegible] of the Methodist church officiating. The interment was in Newnansville cemetery, and was largely attended.

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of The Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by all druggists.

THE POLITICAL POT.

Nominations of Two Tickets Has Set the Pot to Boiling Heat.

There is going to be some good-natured fun over the approaching municipal election, as the meeting of the two clubs on Monday night, and the nomination of two tickets, has "set things to humming," to use the expression. This will afford a subject for the local politicians and others to talk about, and they have lost no time in getting at it.

One striking feature, however, is the fact that the arguments are all in the best humor and good nature. It has been so long since two tickets were in the field that the friendly rivalry is affording considerable of novelty.

Sleeplessness.

Disorders of the stomach produce a nervous condition and often prevent sleep. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets stimulate the digestive organs, restore the system to a healthy condition and make sleep possible. For sale by all druggists.

Mr. Crews' Condition.

Parties arriving in the city from LaCrosse state that the condition of S. L. Crews, who was seriously cut by Ivan Holder in a recent dispute over a land line, is slowly improving, although the patient is yet suffering a great deal.

It is hoped that Mr. Crews will rapidly recover, and that he will soon be out again.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

M'FASHION HAD RELATIVES HERE

Negro Murdered at Starke Son-in-Law of Colored Preacher.

A VERY MYSTERIOUS CRIME

The Man Was Regarded as Unusually Industrious and Peaceable—Made Good Success at Growing Strawberries—No Evidence Found.

John McFashion, the young colored man who was waylaid and killed from ambush near Starke on Wednesday night of the past week, was a son-in-law of Rev. Morris Carter of this city, who has just returned from the scene of the tragedy.

The slayer of McFashion made his escape, nothwithstanding that five people were seated on the wagon at the time of the shooting.

Of this tragedy The Bradford County Telegraph of the 15th inst. has the following, in part, to say:

"McFashion had been in town and was walking home by the Sanderson road. He was accompanied by his wife and with them was another colored woman. When they were about opposite the home of A. H. Green, half a mile from the town limits, they were overtaken by Marks Moody, a young white man who was driving a wagon. Moody recognized McFashion and offered him and those with him a ride. Moody's wagon had no body, but his offer of a ride was accepted and McFashion seated himself on the front bolster, near Moody, while the women took seats on the rear bolster. They had gone less than fifty yards and were just passing a large pine tree by the roadside when a load of buckshot fired into McFashion at close range sent him to his death so quickly that he never spoke a word after the shot had been fired.

"When McFashion got on the wagon he seated himself to the left of Moody and at the end of the bolster occupied by him was inclined forward at a considerable angle, thus throwing him somewhat in front of Moody, who was seated on the right side of the wagon. The assassin was stationed on the right side of the road and as the wagon approached he fired in front of Moody at his victim. The deadly work was done in such close quarter that Moody's face was painfully powder burned. His mules were so frightened that they ran away, but he soon managed to get them under control and then made an investigation to find what damage had been done. He found McFashion still hanging to the wagon, but soon ascertained that he was dead. A closer examination showed that the dead man's neck had been broken and that five or six buckshot had entered his breast."

Those who knew the dead man state that he was of an unusual industrious nature. He was engaged in growing strawberries, and has been quite successful, having a good crop now in his field.

The coroner's jury which investigated the tragedy returned the natural verdict that the deceased came to his death by a gun-shot wound at the hands of a party unknown, as absolutely no evidence could be secured throwing light upon the murder.

Gainesville Property Steadily Increasing in Value From Day to Day.

The steady growth in value of Gainesville property is something that everyone is talking of, wherever they meet. Traveling men are quick to take note of a town's prosperity, if it is of the permanent kind, and several of these gentlemen who "make" Gainesville regularly have expressed their opinions in terms most favorable to our hustling little city.

We are steadily growing—in fact the increase in population makes it necessary to open up new suburbs, that our new residents may have proper places to make their homes. Our latest acquisition in this line, College Park, situated just across University avenue from the University of Florida, bids fair to become one of the most popular of our residence sections. The fact that it goes on sale soon is gratifying, as many persons, wishing to live in the vicinity of the University, have tried to find suitable property in that direction and have been unable to do so.

College Park will be sure to sell fast; it's too good a piece of land to do otherwise.

Additional Clerk Has Been Assigned to Duty in Gainesville Office.

The increase in business of the United States land office having required the services of an additional clerk, the general land office has detailed for duty Miss Jessie Riley of Jackson, Miss., who will assume her duties on April 1.

Miss Riley is recommended as a most competent clerk, having had six years' experience in the Jackson office.

Thankful for Nomination.

Editor Sun: Permit me through your valued paper to extend my appreciation and thanks for the renomination which I have received for Marshal of the city. I assure the people of Gainesville that, in the event of my re-election, I shall endeavor to fulfil the duties of the office with the same care and discretion I have always exercised. As to my past record, I will leave the public to decide.

LACROSSE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Twenty-Fourth Anniversary to be Held First Sunday in April.

If there is any one thing the good people of LaCrosse, especially Captain H. C. Parker, take a deep interest in, it is their Baptist Sunday school. For twenty-four consecutive years this Sunday school has been running, twenty-two years of which Captain Parker has been the superintendent; hence it is no wonder that he manifests an especial pride in the institution.

Each year, the first Sunday in April, the anniversary is held with an appropriate and interesting program. The present year will be no exception, and the affair is being anticipated with a great deal of interest, as it will attract the people for miles around, who know from experience how entertaining the program will be.

Captain Parker, who was in the city a couple of days ago, stated that one of the finest programs ever given at the church is being arranged, and a cordial invitation is extended to all. The exercises will be held in the afternoon.

JOTTINGS FROM JUDSON.

That Section Suffering Greatly for Rain, and Cattle Are Dying.

Judson, March 19.—The friends of R. S. Tucker will be glad to see him able to be in his store again, after being confined to his bed for two weeks with lagrippe.

W. H. Tucker of Newberry was here on the 10th to see his father, R. S. Tucker.

This part of the country is getting distressingly dry—too dry to get corn and cotton to come up. Had but very little rain since last summer. Some few who planted in February have their crops up, but unless it rains that which is up will die back.

The wells are all going dry and having to be dug deeper. The ponds and branches are all dry, the lakes are getting low. Cattle trying to get water are bogging down and dying. We hear several stockmen complaining that they are losing lots of their cattle by bogging down.

Mr. Sheffield's Misfortune.

Friends of Eustis J. Sheffield, formerly of this city but now residing in Jacksonville, will regret to learn that he had the misfortune a couple of days recently to break his foot, from the result of which he has suffered a great deal.

The information came through a private letter which did not explain the manner in which the accident happened, but it is hoped that the injury is not serious, and that Mr. Sheffield will be enabled to resume his duties soon.

Steamer Jessba on the Rocks.

London, March 19.—Almost in the sight of the wreck of the White Line steamer Suevic, the elder Dempster Line stamer Jessba Albar, Lagos and other west African ports, for Plymouth and Liverpool, ran on the rocks under the cliff of the near point in the early hours of Monday morning. Her 70 passengers, many of whom were soldiers invalided home from the west coast of Africa, and her crew, were safely taken ashore by the breeches buoy. Heavy seas are breaking over the steamer, rendering the life boats which are standing by the vessel useless. The Jessba will prove a total loss.

THE NEWS FROM MELROSE.

Jolly Party Were Guests of Dr. Curtis Saturday Night.

Melrose, March 18.—Miss E. Earle of McRae, Ga., gave a very enjoyable farewell party to a large number of her young friends on the evening of March 18.

Summer must surely be not far off, as the boys have already taken to swimming in the cove.

Chas. Huffman left Saturday for Live Oak. He expects to attend school there for about three months and afterwards to enter the office of J. Rodgers, his brother-in-law.

J. Shelby's circus is advertising to perform in town on March 27, and everybody, old and young, will be there.

Newly registered at the Hoffman house are L. A. Morey, New York city; C. W. Van Winckle and wife, Rutherford, N. J.

S. Carrier of Palatka was in town several days taking photos for a number of our Northern friends. The real cards of Melrose are in great demand, and he is still adding new objects to his assortment.

A very jolly delegation of seven represented Melrose at a "stag party" given in honor of St. Patrick by Dr. Curtis at Orange Heights on Saturday night. A most elaborate nine dinner was served. The prevailing color of table decorations was of course "green," from the candles to ice cream and candy. Several sprigs of real shamrock were on the table with shamrock favors and place cards for the guests. The evening was all too short for the many good stories told by the genial host and his guests. The Melrosians left at a decidedly late hour, and the Doctor kindly hopes that the long drought would not prevail during their long home-ward drive.

COLLEGE PARK OPENS SOON.

This Subdivision Unequaled as to Investments.

Sale of lots in College Park will begin at an early date and from a few words we have been given as to terms, etc., it is safe to say that Gainesville people will not be slow to take advantage of the superior inducements offered.

Located, as they are, just across one of the finest boulevards in the country from the University of Florida, a part of the millions of dollars the state will spend on its property will increase the value of lots in College Park, and to those far-sighted enough to see the advantages offered this will be an opportunity that they will be slow to take advantage of.

Suevic Strikes Rocks.

New York, March 19.—The White Star steamer Suevic struck on rocks and went ashore near The Lizard in a thick fog at 11:30 o'clock tonight. Boats have been launched and tugs have been summoned to go to the assistance of the vessel. There are 400 passengers and 160 sea-men and the crew on board the Suevic. No loss of life is so far reported. The Suevic went ashore on the rocks known as Maentere rock, near the light house. The passengers and crew of the Suevic are being landed. No lives have been lost.

Bituminous Coal Miners Meet.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 19—The annual meeting of the bituminous coal miners of Indiana and Illinois, will be held here Tuesday morning. National President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, will call the convention to order to make an address. An effort will be made to re-elect President O'Connors from the presidency of the organization.

Change Dates for Sailings.

New York, March 19.—The Hamburg American line announces that after July 15, the largest steamship on the line will sail from New York on Mondays instead of Thursdays, as heretofore, and the other steamers on Saturday instead of Saturdays.

He was identified by means of letters in his pockets and his father, in Denver, was notified by wire of his condition. The ailment was nephritis.

Home Wrecker Shot Dead.

El Reno, Okla., March 19.—W. R. Rhea, a cornice-maker, returned from Fort Work, and walked into the confectionary establishment of A. Newhall, in the principal street of the city, and fired five shots at the proprietor, killing him instantly. Rhea stooped over and put out the powder fire in Newall's clothings, and then stepped out in the street and surrendered himself to the chief of police, saying: "I would kill any man who ruined my home."

A UNIQUE CRITICISM.

The Shout That Made Remington's Indian Open His Mouth.

Frederic Remington's studio was quiet. A stillness that betokens work pervaded the atmosphere, and the artist, working away at his canvas, "The Spirit of War," silently laid on his colors of the scorching sun, and an Indian chief, raised in his stirrups, shouting to his braves, inspiring them with courage for the fight.

Remington had not heard a knock at the studio door or the entrance of an unannounced guest. Nor did he realize that two sharp eyes were scanning his work with that critical examination characteristic of the man who "knows art."

Suddenly there burst from the visitor such a shout as any Indian chief would have been proud of.

Another and another shout echoed through the studio. Remington, starting back, dropped his brushes and palette and turned in the direction of the thundering voice.

"Ah, bah! My boy, open his mouth. Make him shout. Make him look it. Open his mouth. So—so." And the stranger gave vent to two more shouts fit for the plains.

It was Gerome, and this was his method of expression in the special case. Remington, in accordance with his advice, "opened his mouth," and as a result, instead of the slightly parted lips, there is a face so full of enthusiasm, so expressive of a great heartfelt throb giving vent to a cheer, that when one sees the picture he is prompted to the action of Gerome, who made probably the most unique criticism ever given on one of Remington's best pictures.—Scrap Book.

Impartial Criticism.

A well known salesman entered a west end conservatory the other afternoon on business. A girl was playing a piano in an adjoining room. Suddenly she began Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," and the teacher conversing with the salesman paused to listen.

"Can't you stop that noise until I explain this to you?" broke in the man of business, who seemed to be a privileged character.

"That girl will be a great musician some day," replied the unruffled teacher. "She is naturally talented. Just listen."

"I don't agree with you," snapped the salesman. "She plays too fast and too loud. Who is she?"

"Your daughter," returned the teacher.—St. Louis Republic.

A Mind Reader.

One night at a court ball in the Tuileries Napoleon III. was so attentive to a beautiful young woman as to excite comment among the other women. At last, in response to a direct tribute to her beauty, she said:

"Ah, but your majesty compliments me too much!"

"How remarkable," he replied with a twinkle in his eye, "that you should say just what every other woman here is thinking!"

Only One Objection.

Some sage said that "life would be tolerable if it were not for its amusements." Many people give most cordial assent to this dictum. No objection can justly be made to it except that it is not true.—London Saturday Review.

YELLOW FEVER ON BOARD.

Patient Died at Galveston Hospital. Ship Is Quarantined.

Galveston, Tex., March 19.—A case of yellow fever was discovered aboard the British steamer Basil that arrived in port Saturday afternoon, nine days out from Para, Brazil, South America. The case was conveyed to the infirmary, where the patient died Sunday, and a postmortem examination corroborated the first diagnosis.

Under the oversight of Drs. Trueheart and Dr. Cox, the patient was handled behind screens from first to last. The ship was placed under a guard, and thoroughly fumigated by the state quarantine authorities so as to destroy all lurking mosquitoes, and towed out by the pilot boat into Bolivar roads, where she will remain under guard until the required six days to determine if any other cases result aboard. With the precautions taken no danger of the spread of the disease need be apprehended, said Dr. Trueheart, city health physician.

Six Known to Have Lost Life.

Bristol, Va., March 19.—Advices from Tacoma, Va., are to the effect that only six persons are positively known to have lost their lives in the explosion which wrecked the coal mine of Bruce & Pond, near that place Saturday. The dead are James and Robert Snow, brothers, of Tacoma; Cleveland and Boliver Noonchester, brothers, of Big Stone Gap, and two whose names have not been learned. Owing to the mass of slate blocking the entrance to one portion of the mine that portion has not yet been reached by the rescuers, and it is the impression at Tacoma that as many as six other miners may be entombed.

English Playwright Dead

There is pretty good evidence that the Wall street panic is a move of the frenzied financiers to scare President Roosevelt and force him to their terms. Already the $30,000,000, due the United States Treasury from the banks has been indefinitely extended.

The selling of the Tampa Bay Hotel is the before the people of Tampa. The Times favors it and The Tribune opposes it. It is not our place to say which is right, so the citizens of the South Florida Metropolis will have to fight it out between themselves.

When an employe conceives the idea that he is the "whole thing" and that his employer cannot do without his services and that he is the "entire wife" of the business, it is time for him to either resign his position, buy out the business or be discharged—and it is usually the latter that happens.

The ink scandal at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing for years current in Washington is now stated to have been investigated by the secret service agents and their report is being considered by the United States attorney for the District of Columbia. The amount involved is between $500,000 and $1,000,000, and perhaps Mr. Vanderlip, who was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and had supervision of such matters, could throw considerable light on the subject.

GOVERNMENT SUPERVISION.

This beginning of government supervision and control is a thing much more welcome to the railroads now than it would have been a few months ago. A great change has come over the managers of the roads since it was shown that the government was in dead earnest about exposing unsound systems of finance and giving the public as near as might be a square deal in connection with all industrial corporations. The railroads at first resented the idea even of rate legislation. But after some of the exposures of railroad mismanagement and the accumulation of popular disapproval, the sentiment against the roads became so strong that legislatures in most of the States saw a chance to make a great hit with their constituents by enacting adverse railroad legislation. Some of this was fair and some was grossly prejudiced. But the mere fact that it was becoming a popular pastime with the States sent some of the biggest railroad men scurrying to the White House to implore President Roosevelt to use his influence in reinstating the roads in popular favor. Mr. Harriman came first and talked very generously about wanting to take the public into his confidence, and then came Mr. Morgan and arranged for a conference between the President and a number of high railroad officials which is soon to be held. Now the President has announced that the railroads are no more and no less to him than any other big interest so long as they behave themselves. But if they are to crave the support and protection of the Federal Government they will have to prove themselves worthy of it by acting squarely. That noted gathering of Standard Oil officials was told some months ago with perfect good nature but brutal frankness, that there was no stock ticker in the White House. And the railroad men are likely to be given the same intimation. There is no disposition on the part of the administration to abridge any State rights, but it is manifest that State supervision of interstate roads and Federal supervision at the same time are an impossible mixing of problems, and the chances are that Federal control will be exercised over the interstate roads to the exclusion of any other control, and considering the popular feeling against them, the railroads will be very glad to accept honest Federal control where a few months ago they would have scorned it.

On the 30th of July the "little brown brother" will be given a chance to cast his first ballot. It will be the preliminary election for the Philippine Assembly. The assembly will consist of 81 members or one delegate for each 90,000 inhabitants of the islands. It will be rather a newsensation for the natives to participate in an elective government and there are a great many interesting and perhaps funny things expected before the body gets down to business. The assembly will correspond to the House of Representatives in Congress while the Philippine Commission will correspond to the Senate. The members of the assembly will be elected for a term of two years.

The resignation of Senator Spooner caused, says Senator Depew, universal sadness, but as a good many people view the matter, although the State of Wisconsin may not get as smart a Senator, yet as far as the people are concerned it is almost impossible to do worse. And the same remarks would apply to the State of New York if Depew should have a spasm of patriotism and resign so as to allow the people instead of the railroads to be represented.

Dade, Volusia and Hillsboro counties are all agitating the question of division. These contests will all receive their attention at the next Legislature.

It is unusually early for the beginning of vegetable shipments, but it is only a forerunner of the tremendous amount that will be shipped within the next three months.

Within fifteen months Arcadia is to have an electric car system. An exclusive right was granted for twenty-five years to W. B. Clay and his associates by the city council of that city. Mr. Clay has great faith in the future of Arcadia and the action of the council shows their faith in him.

The entire wholesale district of the city of Cincinnati is now under water and many of the manufacturing plants are unable to open. The river is expected to rise higher. It is causing no end of suffering and the lives of the people living along the banks of the Ohio river are in peril.

Frank Clark is an abler and better man and debater than William Randolph Hearst; but when it comes to lying, and the dissemination of his lying, Mr. Hearst, through the instrumentality of his several publications, has "got him beat a block."—Jacksonville Floridian.

The new postal classification law will increase the salaries of 19,900 clerks and 24,227 carriers. Both of those classes of our public servants are entitled to the increase since the tariff protected trusts and other causes have increased the cost of living over 50 per cent.

The Florida Anti-Saloon League will endeavor to secure the passage of a bill at the next Legislature that will prevent the shipping of intoxicants into dry counties. This measure will no doubt attract much attention during the coming session of the Legislature.

DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful "Cascarets" for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to "Cascarets" for their wonderful composition. I have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year."

ROBERT E. LEE.

Some Characteristics of the Great Confederate Leader.

"Unlike many of the leaders in the Confederacy, Robert E. Lee had no pet theory the maintenance of which required him to cast his fortunes with the south," says Mrs. General Pickett in her "Personal Memoirs of Robert E. Lee" in Lippincott's. "A soldier by birth and training, he had belonged to the United States too long entirely to have developed an allegiance to the doctrine of state rights, though long after the war he made the statement that had not that theory been taught at West Point there would have been no secession.

"Though invariably considerate to his subordinates, Lee could be drastic and dictatorial when it became necessary, and if occasion required it he could outrank the president. Jefferson Davis always claimed that he himself was intended for a soldier, not a president, and he was fond of being under fire if he could not get behind the guns. One day he came out on the field during a battle. Lee turned to him and said:

'Mr. President, am I in command here?'

'Certainly,' said Mr. Davis.

'Then, sir,' Lee replied, 'I forbid you to stand here under the enemy's fire. I order you off the field.'

The president went.

One of Lee's strongest characteristics was the grave immobility of his face in times of the greatest stress of battle. Grant speaks of it in his account of the surrender.

'Meade and Lee were old friends, and immediately after the surrender Meade called on him.

'Meade,' said Lee, 'the years are telling on you too. Your hair is getting quite gray.'

'That is not the work of years, General,' Meade replied. 'You are responsible for my gray hairs.'"

GLASS IS PECULIAR.

Has a Number of Curious and Contradictory Qualities.

Glass is one of the most interesting as well as one of the most peculiar substances in the world. It has curious and contradictory qualities, and many surprising phenomena are connected with it. Brittle and breakable as it is, glass exceeds almost all other bodies in elasticity.

Hollow glass balls are made to strike together at a given force, the recoil, because of their elasticity, will be almost equal to their original impetus. Coupled with its brittleness are some other curious facts.

Take a hollow sphere with a hole in it, stop the hole with the finger, so as to prevent the external and internal air from communicating, and the glass will fly to pieces by the mere heat of the hand. Vessels made of glass that have been suddenly cooled have the curious property of being able to resist hard blows given to them without, but will be instantly shivered by a small particle of flint dropped into their cavities. This property seems to depend upon the comparative thickness of the bottom; the thicker the bottom is the more certain of breakage by this experiment. Of these vessels, it is stated, have withstood the stroke of a mallet given with sufficient force to drive a nail into wood, and heavy bodies, such as cannon balls, pieces of iron, bits of glass, jasper, stone, etc., have been dropped on them from a height of two hundred feet without any effect, yet a piece of flint not larger than a pea dropped from a height of three inches would shatter them fly.

The Majority Are Right Eyed.

"Most right handed persons are also left eyed," an oculist said. "Of course they can use their left eye just as well as their right one, but they usually they cannot. For an instance, in the navy or army recruiting station one of the examinations consists in reading certain printed letters with each eye closed. In almost every case where the applicant is right handed he will close his left eye first and give the right the preference. And when he comes to read with his left eye he finds it is more difficult. Now, if that man's eyes were to be examined by an expert oculist both would probably be equally strong, but the right handed man will always does most of his one hand work with his right eye."—Kansas City Star.

J. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

J. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by using less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped brick dust sediment, and pain in the back of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have had no return of any of those symptoms in four years that have recently cured me. I recommend Nicknames.

"It's funny how a nickname, given to one during one's boyhood, will stick to one throughout a lifetime," said a man recently. "The variety of nicknames is also amusing. If I were asked to explain the conditions, I should say that it was because the 'rest of the kids' didn't like the real names and just substituted others to suit themselves. For instance, a boy comes to school with a lengthy name that a fond mother has given him with no doubt in the world that he will bear it all his life. Usually her fond hopes are shattered and the little 'dear' will come home from school the proud possessor of such a 'hang-on' as Tip, Rip, Bull or Buck. And it sticks too."—Columbus Dispatch.

A Powerful Salve.

A man in Nebraska invented a new powerful double acting salve which shows powers never before exhibited by salves of any kind. The inventor accidentally cut off the tail of a tame wolf, and, immediately applying some of the salve to the stump, a new tail grew out. Then, picking up the old tail, he applied some of the salve to the raw end of that, and a wolf grew out, but he was a wild wolf and had to be shot.—Chicago Tribune.

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Ruppee. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him; when, by our druggist's advice I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS.

Meet the problems of today in the light of the present You play a losing game when you try to unlock the door of the future with a rusty key saved from the rubbish-piles of the past.

John D. Rockefeller is said to own one-fortieth of all the wealth of the United States His income is seventy millions a year. That makes me think I must go down town and get that gallon of oil and help pay my part of that $32,000,000 charity-fund uncle John D. has given away for me.

Did you ever study a real leader of men? Every gesture is shy and pensive; the voice, melodious and caressing. He is not a fighter, but a persuader. He is a wizzard whose glamor is irresistible. The spell is bewitching and gracious. But, after all, you come to find there is iron under the velvet. Gentleness is always born of great strength. It is like the exhaustless fountain whose secret springs are hidden away.

A discord is only harmony misunderstood. It is not always the silver chord that's out of tune. The ear may lose the power to catch the sweetest note. How true that is! Is the life of some struggling spirit a discordant note to you? Is the heart all out of tune? It may be your ear is insensible to the sweetest strains. If we only knew that discord is harmony misunderstood—oh, if we only knew that—we would be filled by music soft and low in the very hearts that now disturb us.

In the light of modern disclosures there are two grades of vitality—two kinds of people. One requires only the touch of a west wind on his cheek, the fragrance that steals softly from the wild flowers, the first faint glow of the morning that crowns the far-off hills with sapphire; the other kind, in lavish and upholstered "caves" they fan the fires that rise from the bogs of appetite and passion. Away from the glare of the footlights, away from their Salome and the witchery of "the pie girl," life to them is stupid and without meaning. There are just two levels of vitality, and they are as far removed from each other as is the east from the west.

Worked Like a Charm.

Mr. D. N. Walker, editor of that spicy journal, The Enterprise, Louisa, Va., says: "I ran a nail in my foot last week and at once applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. No inflammation followed; the salve simply healed the wound." Heals every sore, burn and skin disease. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 25c

Permanent National Fair Planned.

New York, March 19—A permanent national fair to contain exhibits from every state in the union and to be housed in a $14,000,000 building in this city, is being planned by some of the state societies having headquarters here. The plan includes a continuous exposition, comprising the best features of the world's fairs of the past, and also luxurious club rooms for the state societies. Congress at the next session will be asked to appropriate that $5,000,000 toward this enterprise and each state legislature will be asked for $200,000. William J. Worden, of Michigan, is father of the project. It was discussed fully at a recent dinner of the Michigan society at the hotel Astor.

How to Remain Young.

To continue young in health and strength, do as Mrs N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Ga., did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flannel. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at all drug stores. Price 50c.

Two Are Shot at Florence.

Birmingham, Ala., March 19.—Specials from Florence, Ala., say that Jesse Williams, a young white man, shot and killed Doss Woods, a young negro. The killing was witnessed by a large crowd and was unprovoked, and feeling is said to be running very high against Williams. Alexander Denton, a negro, was shot at Florence Saturday night by Manuel Jones in a fit of jealous rage. An artery was severed by the bullet and the negro almost bled to death.

Dangers of Pneumonia.

A cold at this time if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia which is so often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia Lagrippe coughs yield quickly to the wonderful curative qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. There is nothing else "just as good." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Captain Chas. B. Owen Dead.

Springfield, Mo., March 19.—Captain Charles B. Owen, a civil war veteran, died at his home near here Sunday aged 80 years. He won distinction at the battle of Pleasant Hill, La., when his regiment lost nearly all of its officers, and nearly half of its men.

Found at Last.

J. A. Harmon, of Lizemore, West Va., says: "At last I have found the perfect pill that never disappoints me; and for the benefit of others afflicted with torpid liver and chronic constipation, will say, take Dr. King's New Life Pills." Guaranteed satisfactory. 25c at all druggists'.

KILLING NEAR BIRMINGHAM.

Fuss Occurred Over a Swing—One Is Dead, the Other Dying.

Birmingham, Ala., March 19.—As the result of a shooting affray at Wylam, near this city, J. B. Brown is dying, and W. M. Stinson, of Ensley, is critically wounded.

Brown is known to have shot Stinson, but it is not known whether Brown's own wounds were inflicted by himself or by Stinson.

Stinson and E. R. Britton, of Greensboro, Ala., had been at Mr. Brown's house, and were swinging. Mrs. Brown had asked the men to let the children have the swing. They went away offended, and later decided to return and apologize to Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Brown accepted the apology gracefully and Britton started away. He had gone but a short distance when he heard shooting in the kitchen. Brown had evidently shot Stinson and then tried to kill himself.

Mrs. Brown refused to talk. Stinson and Brown have been the most intimate friends for years.

THE DISCOVERER

Of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine for Woman's ills in the world has received such wide spread and unqualified endorsement.

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female illnesses or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing all forms of Female Complaints, Inflammation and Ulceration, and consequent Spinal Weakness.

It has cured more cases of Backache and Local Weaknesses than any other one remedy. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development.

Irregularities and periodical pains, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yield to it. It also deranged organs, causing pain, dragging sensations and backache. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the female system.

It removes that wearing feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues". These are indications of Female Weakness. or some derangement of the organs which this medicine cures as well as Chronic Kidney Complaints and Backache, of either sex.

Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutes.
